CONTENTS

No. 1 JULY, 1937

ESTELLE E. HAWLEY, RAY G. DAGGS AND DORAN J. STEPHENS. The effect of the administration of acid and alkaline salts upon the ascorbic acid content of guinea pig tissues 1

E. F. KOHMAN, W. H. EDDY, MARY E. WHITE AND N. H. SANBORN. Comparative experiments with canned, home cooked, and raw food diets ... 9

ERCEL S. EPPRIGHT AND ARTHUR H. SMITH. The influence of specific mineral deficiencies on the growth of body and organs of the rat. One figure 21

RALPH M. CONRAD AND CLARENCE P. BERG. Growth on histidine and lysine administered by subcutaneous or intraperitoneal injection. Two figures 35

NELLIE HALLIDAY AND HERBERT M. EVANS. On the claim for a new essential dietary factor in mammalian liver. Two figures 45

MARY SWARTZ ROSE AND ESTHER H. FUNNELL PHIPARD. Vitamin B and G values of peas and Lima beans under various conditions. Two figures 55

ALFRED T. SHOHL. The effect of the acid-base content of the diet upon the production and cure of rickets with special reference to citrates. One figure 69

G. A. SCHRADER, C. O. PRICKETT AND W. D. SALMON. Symptomatology and pathology of potassium and magnesium deficiencies in the rat. Two plates (eight figures) 85

No. 2 AUGUST, 1937

ARTHUR L. BLOOMFIELD. Individual variations in susceptibility to dietary deficiency. Two figures 111

LINDOL R. FRENCH AND ARTHUR L. BLOOMFIELD. 'Latent deficiency' in rats: Variations in weight loss on repeated feeding of a defective diet. Eight figures 117

G. O. KOHLER, C. A. ELVEHJEM AND E. B. HART. Further studies on the growth promoting factor associated with summer milk. One figure 131

ERNST GELLHORN AND J. O. DUNN. Undernutrition, starvation and phagocytosis. Three figures 145

H. S. WILGUS, JR., L. C. NORRIS AND G. F. HEUSER. The role of manganese and certain other trace elements in the prevention of perosis 155

GLADYS A. EMERSON AND HERBERT M. EVANS. The effect of vitamin E deficiency upon growth. Six graphs 169

FRANCIS G. BENEDICT AND HENRY C. SHERMAN. With the collaboration of H. L. Campbell and Anna Zmachinsky. Basal metabolism of rats in relation to old age and exercise during old age. Three figures 179

LEROY VORIS. Effect of vitamin B deficiency on heat production of the rat. 199

MAX KRISS AND LEROY VORIS. A further contribution to the derivation of factors for computing the gaseous exchange and the heat production in the metabolism of proteins 215

No. 3 SEPTEMBER, 1937

THOMAS H. JUKES. Biological assay of lactoflavin with chicks. Four figures 223

H. J. ALMQUIST AND E. L. R. STOKSTAD. Assay procedure for vitamin K (anti-hemorrhagic vitamin) 235

H. J. ALMQUIST. Sources and nature of the chick gizzard factor 241

M. ETHELBURG LEUSCHEN, BERNICE L. KUNERTH, M. M. KRAMER AND W. H. RIDDELL. Vitamin A activity of butters determined by various methods. One figure 247

LAFAYETTE B. MENDEL, REBECCA B. HUBBELL AND ALFRED J. WAKEMAN. The influence of some commonly used salt mixtures upon growth and bone development of the albino rat 261

REBECCA B. HUBBELL, LAFAYETTE B. MENDEL AND ALFRED J. WAKEMAN. A new salt mixture for use in experimental diets 273

JOHN HALDI AND GEORGE BACHMANN. With the technical assistance of W. Wynn and J. M. Little. The effect of exercise on metabolism following the ingestion of water, glucose and fructose, as shown by the course of the respiratory quotient. Two figures 287

H. S. OLCOTT AND H. A. MATTILL. Vitamin E and growth. Two figures ... 305

AMY L. DANIELS AND GLADYS J. EVERSON. With the cooperation of Olive E. Wright, Mary F. Deardorff and Florence I. Secular. The relation of ascorbic acid ingestion to mineral metabolism in children 317

No. 4 OCTOBER, 1937

P. B. Pearson, E. B. Hart and G. Bohstedt. The effect of the quality of protein on the estrous cycle. Six figures 329

H. H. Dukes. Studies on the energy metabolism of the hen. Four figures 341

Victor A. Drill. The effect of yeast on the liver glycogen of white rats during hyperthyroidism 355

Margaret Cammack Smith and Louise Otis. Effect of adding copper to the exclusive milk diet used in the preparation of anemic rats upon their subsequent response to iron. Two figures 365

David T. Smith, Elbert L. Persons and Harold I. Harvey. On the identity of the Goldberger and Underhill types of canine blacktongue. Secondary fuso-spirochetal infection in each. One figure 373

Rowland B. French and George R. Cowgill. Immaturity of the organism as a factor determining the favorable influence of lactose on the utilization of calcium and phosphorus. Two figures 383

Daniel Melnick and George R. Cowgill. The toxicity of high-gliadin diets. Studies on the dog and on the rat 401

E. B. Forbes. The effects of deficiency of phosphorus on the utilization of food energy and protein 419

No. 5 NOVEMBER, 1937

H. H. Mitchell, T. S. Hamilton and Jessie R. Beadles. The comparative nutritive values of glucose, fructose, sucrose and lactose when incorporated in a complete diet 435

Robert F. Light, Logan T. Wilson and Charles N. Frey. Activatability of milk as affected by feeding ergosterol to cows 453

I. L. Chaikoff and A. Kaplan. On the survival of the completely depancreatized dog 459

N. B. Guerrant, R. Adams Dutcher and Ruth Crowthers. Environmental temperature as a factor in the production and in the cure of rickets in the rat. One figure 471

T. C. Sherwood, O. R. Depp, G. P. Birge and H. B. Dotson. Further studies on the effect of excessive vitamin A on the oestrous cycle of the rat 481

MAX KRISS AND ARTHUR H. SMITH. The respiratory metabolism of rats receiving a diet deficient in inorganic constituents. The change in basal metabolism. One figure 487

W. B. ESSELEN, JR., C. R. FELLERS AND B. ISGUR. Vitamins A, C and D in maize as affected by variety and stage of growth 503

C. R. SCHMIDT, J. M. BEAZELL, P. J. CRITTENDEN AND A. C. IVY. The effect of the oral administration of pancreatin on fecal nitrogen and fat loss in achylia pancreatica 513

ALEX BLACK, ORME J. KAHLENBERG, JOHN W. BRATZLER AND E. B. FORBES. The utilization of energy producing nutriment and protein as affected by deficiency of iron and copper 521

No. 6 DECEMBER, 1937

ETHEL BURACK AND H. M. ZIMMERMAN. Studies on the alleged toxic action of cod liver oil. Observations on growth and pathologic changes in animals fed large amounts of cod liver oil. Three figures 535

GEORGE O. BURR AND A. J. BEBER. Metabolism studies with rats suffering from fat deficiency. Six figures 553

JULIA OUTHOUSE, JANICE SMITH AND LILLIAN MERRITT. Control feeding technic in bone calcification studies 567

JULIA OUTHOUSE, JANICE SMITH, LILLIAN MERRITT AND FLORENCE R. WHITE. A comparative study of the growth-promoting and bone-calcifying effects of several carbohydrates. One figure 579

H. H. MITCHELL AND JESSIE R. BEADLES. The nutritive value of the proteins of nuts in comparison with the nutritive value of beef proteins 597

H. C. SHERMAN AND H. L. CAMPBELL. With the collaboration of P. B. Rice. Nutritional well-being and length of life as influenced by different enrichments of an already adequate diet. One figure 609

F. W. ATKESON, J. S. HUGHES, BERNICE L. KUNERTH, W. J. PETERSON AND MARTHA KRAMER. Recovery of carotene and vitamin A from butter when cows were fed unlimited quantities of green rye 621

FAITH FENTON, DONALD K. TRESSLER, S. C. CAMP AND C. G. KING. Losses of vitamin C during the cooking of Swiss chard. Two figures 631
